Deadline is 25 March 2005. Entries must be postmarked on or before this date. We will try to subsidize travel costs for one individual and one film. Travels costs will be awarded on a first come, first serve basis. Therefore, the earlier the film is submitted, the better the chances are for a travel cost allowance!

Rules and Regulations

Film

We are looking for amusing film productions which were completed after 1 January 2003 and which are between 1 and 30 minutes long. The competition is open for films in German or with German subtitles as well as silent films (this category could be interesting for international filmmakers.)

FUNNIEST SHORTS competition is for all age levels, for beginners and amateurs as well as for students. A maximum of two films per person may be submitted. A pre-selection is chosen by a jury. Legal claims to participate can not be made.

Format

Films can be submitted on DVD (DVD auto play, without menu, country code 2 PAL or mini DV (PAL). The films will be used for showing and will not be returned. (However if required, films can be returned if return postage is included).

Postage fees for film entries are to be paid by the sender. Entries that create any costs for the organizers will be refused.

Awards

The audience determines, using paper ballots, the six winners during the film presentation. Each film is graded by the audience, school grading system from 1 to 6, through which an average is calculated and given to each film. Last year the six prizes were awarded as follows:

- 1x 1. Prize: 500 Euro
- 2x 2. Prize: 250, 250 Euro
- 3x 3. Prize: 100, 100, 100 Euro

We will also try to have similar sums awarded this year. The exact amount of prize money awarded this year will be announced at a later date. If 2 or more films should result in having the same average, the organizers reserve the right to divide the award money accordingly. Concerning remittances abroad, bank fees will be deducted from the prize money.

Festival

The film festival will take place on 22 and 23 April 2005 in Schongau in the Jakob-Pfeiffer Haus. The awards ceremony will take place on 23 April following the program. Claims to a film's presentation because of technical problems, or the like, do not exist.

Organizers

The organizers of the FUNNIEST SHORTS are the responsible organization of KULTUR PUR, the Kulturverein Schongauer Land e.V.

Concession of Rights

All film rights remain with the Author. With the acceptance of the rules and regulations the entrant declares that he/ she holds all rights to the submitted work and agrees to the films usage in non-commercial public presentations, newspaper articles, internet and festival promotions. All submitted films will remain in the possession as well as be stored and kept with the Kulturvereins Schongauer Land e.V.

By submitting the signed entry the Author acknowledges the conditions of the rules and regulations and exempts the organizers from all claims eventually made by a third party.
